

TOWARD RACIAL JUSTICE

Architecture and urban planning are critical to the shaping of the built environment, each bearing complex histories regarding social justice and the provision of opportunities for all. The 2020-21 Lecture Series at the UB School of Architecture and Planning will focus on racial justice in our disciplines and the broader impacts that the work of architects and urban planners have on historically disenfranchised communities, to generate dialogue and prompt real change.

September 16

Colloquium in Architectural History

Rewriting "American Architecture": Recovering Black Narratives of Space

Charles Davis (M.Arch '02), University at Buffalo School of Architecture and Planning

Brian Goldstein, Swarthmore College, Art History

Amber Wiley, Rutgers, Art History

Maura Lucking, UCLA Architecture and Urban Design

6 pm

September 23

Clarkson Chair in Architecture, Lecture

Kunlé Adeyemi

NLE

12 pm

October 16

Book Launch and Discussion

Urban Renewal and School Reform in Baltimore

Erkin Özay, University at Buffalo School of Architecture and Planning

Paola Aguirre Serrano, Borderless Studio

5 pm - 6:30 pm

October 28

Symposium

Rebuilding the Built Environment: Pedagogy in Practice

Quardean Lewis-Allen (B.S.Arch '09), Youth Design Center

Garnette Cadogan, MIT, University of Virginia

Daphne Lundi, NYC Mayor's Office of Resiliency

Mira Henry, SCI-Arc, Current Interests

Charles Davis (M.Arch '02), University at Buffalo

School of Architecture and Planning

Organized by AASAP (African American Students of Architecture and Planning), with support from UBNOMAS (UB National Organization of Minority Architecture Students)

5 pm - 8 pm

September 18

Book Launch and Workshop

Race and Modern Architecture

Mabel Wilson, Columbia University GSAPP

Charles Davis (M.Arch '02), University at Buffalo School of

Architecture and Planning

Irene Cheng, California College of the Arts

Co-sponsored by Columbia University GSAPP and California College of the Arts

3 pm - 6 pm

October 7

Lecture

Jeffrey Lowe

Texas Southern University

6 pm

October 21

Bethune Lecture

Jennifer Newsom

Dream the Combine,

University of Minnesota School of Architecture

Sponsored by AIA Buffalo/Western New York

6 pm

November 18

Lecture

Henry Taylor

University at Buffalo School of

Architecture and Planning

6 pm

The public lecture series of the School of Architecture and Planning is supported by the following individuals and companies: AIA Buffalo/WNY, Lori Duckstein, Viviane Jammal, Will and Nan Clarkson

Information on accessibility and accommodations for people with disabilities can be found at ap.buffalo.edu/visitor-info

AIA and AICP continuing education credits available for select events

For more information and updates visit ap.buffalo.edu

The 2020-21 Public Programs Committee is: Joyce Hwang, Brian Carter, Charles Davis, Samina Raja, Robert Silverman
Poster Design by Joyce Hwang